State revokes nursing assistant's license for sexual contact with a child

OLYMPIA — The license of Thurston County Nursing Assistant Daniel R. Sigafoos (NAR.NA.00137630) has been revoked for sexual contact with a child. He cannot practice in Washington or seek reinstatement of his license for at least 10 years.

In September of 2011, Sigafoos had sexual contact with a 4-year-old child and was criminally charged with first-degree child molestation.

The Department of Health Nursing Assistant Program charged Sigafoos with unprofessional conduct in March and immediately suspended his license. He failed to respond to charges, and the department revoked his license.
